Outer Banks Seafood Festival Coming up on Saturday, October 18, 2014 Seafood, beverages, music, art, cooking, activities and fishing heritage

OUTER BANKS, N.C. – One of the tastiest events on the Outer Banks, the Outer Banks Seafood Festival sponsored by TowneBank and Outer Banks Visitors Bureau, is coming up in just a few short weeks. The third annual festival will held October 18 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., rain or shine, at the soundside Outer Banks Event Site in Nags Head.

The mission of the Outer Banks Seafood Festival is to provide a fun and educational experience promoting, honoring and celebrating the area's seafood heritage and community. To that end, the festival offers opportunities to meet watermen and see the tools of their trade, including boats. It also offers cooking demonstrations, educational booths and, best of all, the chance to eat fresh, local seafood from more than a dozen restaurants.

Restaurants

Some of the restaurants serving seafood and other items at the festival include Sam & Omie's, Awful Arthur's, Striper's, Sugar Creek, Darrell's II, Mulligan's, The Salad Bowl, Captain George's, Proof Bakery, BK Shuckers, The Lone Cedar, Dirty Dick's, Kelly's and Jolly Roger. Food and beverages (beer, wine, water and soft drinks) are purchased with SeaBucks, the currency of the festival.

Entertainment

The live entertainment lineup for the festival is as follows:

10:50 a.m. Main stage opening ceremony, Presentation of the Colors by U.S. Coast Guard Honor Guard, Tshombe Selby sings the National Anthem, Reverend David Daniels delivers the blessing
11:00 a.m. Molasses Creek
12:10 p.m. Mojo Collins & Triple Vision
1:20 p.m. Bill & Friends

3:40 p.m. Old Enough to Know Better
4:50 p.m. Jonny Waters & Company
